The American Legacy Scholarship

*It's the Least
We Can Do*

Many of our nation's children have lost a parent during this war on terrorism. These parents lost out on the opportunity to see their children through school and into adulthood.

We must assume some of the responsibility on behalf of these gallant heroes and help their children. It's the least we can do.

Please contribute to the American Legacy Scholarship Fund to assist the children of military personnel killed on or after September 11, 2001.
